The situation in The former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia

The President (spoke in French): I should like to inform the Council that I have received a letter from the representative of the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia to the United Nations in which he requests to be invited to participate in the discussion of the item on the Council's agenda. In conformity with the usual practice, I propose, with the consent of the Council, to invite that representative to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

There being no objection, it is so decided.

At the invitation of the President, Mr. Kerim (the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia) took a seat at the Council table.

The President (spoke in French): The Security Council will now begin its consideration of the item on its agenda.

The Security Council is meeting in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations.

Members of the Council have before them document S/2001/902, which contains the text of a draft resolution prepared in the course of the Council's prior consultations.

I should like to draw the attention of the members of the Council to document S/2001/897, which contains the text of a letter dated 21 September 2001 from the Permanent Representative of the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia to the United Nations addressed to the President of the Security Council, transmitting a letter dated 21 September 2001 from the President of the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia.

It is my understanding that the Council is ready to vote on the draft resolution (S/2001/902) before it. Unless I hear any objection, I shall put the draft resolution to the vote now.

There being no objection, it is so decided.

A vote was taken by show of hands.
